SEALS TAKE FIRST
TWILIGHT AFFAIR

Downs and Corban Give Fans a Treat With Homers and Bees Lose 5 to 2.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The champion Seals took the first twilight game in San Francisco, defeating the Salt Lake Bees tonight, 5 to 2.

The largest week-day crowd of the season jammed the stands, and the league management, as well as the local club, is jubilant over the apparent popularity of the post-supper contest.

Downs and Corban gave the fans a treat by polling out homers, both into the left field bleachers. Corban also got a double and a single and scored two runs. The Seal shortstop was at bat three times. He would have had a perfect day but for a bobbie he pulled, which was the only error of the game. Kantelehnner pitched a steady game throughout and was given magnificent support by his teammates.

TWILIGHT GAME
GOES TO TIGERS

Senators Score Two Runs in Third But Tigers Go One Better in Fourth and Win.

SACRAMENTO, June 18.—The Bengals from Vernon proved to be better twilighters here this evening and defeated the Yippers, 3 to 2.

An extra large crowd turned out to see the first twilight exhibition and should the Coyotes show any winning form the venture promises to be successful.

The Senators scored their two runs in the third, when Eldred walked, stole second and scored on Willie's single. Griggs got a two-base hit, which Daley lost in the sun, and Willie romped home.

In the fourth the Tigers got all their runs. Chadbourne led off with a single. Borton walked and De Vormer and Hosp singled. This put over three runs for the Tigers, and after that Promme was not touched for even a near-run.

LOS ANGELES, June 18.—The first game of twilight ball in Los Angeles found an increased attendance at Washington park, where the Angels and Oaks played a close game this evening, the local team winning out in the ninth, 2 to 1.

The twilight aided Fitterly and Prough to camouflage their twisters, with the advantages in favor of the Angel pitcher.

The Angels started in the lead, making a run in the fourth, which Oakland matched in the following inning.

The Angels made their second run in the last of the ninth on two long hits.

Fournier and Wares took the battling honors, each being credited with a three-bagger.

The game was played in the fast time of 1 hour and 16 minutes.

BAKER CREDITS NEWLY FOUND SUCCESS
TO HIS SYSTEM OF CAREFUL TRAINING

Frank Baker.

Frank Baker is batting well over .300 for the Yankees and is fielding spectacularly. Critics who have said for the last two seasons that he was through can't do it out. Baker says systematic training in the winter kept him in fine fettle and is responsible for the improvement.

DODGERS FAIL TO

BROOKLYN, June 18.—Brooklyn made twelve hits for a total of nineteen bases off Vaughn, but lost to Chicago, 4 to 3, through reckless base running.

A home run and three singles in the first inning netted only one run, Johnston being caught stealing just before

Olson drove the ball into the left field bleachers for the circuit.

The Cubs bunched hits in the third and fifth innings, an error by Olson proving costly in the latter inning.

Hollocher's sharp fielding featured.
